THE CONSTITUTION (FIFTYNINTH AMENDMENT) BILL, 1988—contd.

(Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY (Tamil Nadu): The Rajiv Gandhi Government should resign. (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please resume your seats. (Interruptions).

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH (West Bengal): A serious situation has arisen. In Madras shoot-to-kill orders have been issued. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN; Please resume your seats. (Interruptions) Please sit down first. First sit down. (Interruptions) I request you, first, sit down. (Interruptions) One of you can speak so that I know what you want to say. (Interruptions) I do not know what you want to say. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: Madam Deputy Chairman... (Interruptions)

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: Before the Emergency Bill is passed, emergency has been declared in our country. In Madras 25,00 people have been arrested. Shoot-to-kill orders have been issued. The Government owes an explanation. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The House is adjourned for 15 minutes. (Interruptions).

The House then adjourned at two minutes past twelve of the clock.

The House reassembled at fifty-eighth minutes past twelve of the clock. The Deputy Chairman in the Chair.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: We take up the Constitution Amendment Bill. Shri Aurora was on his legs. He can continue his speech. (Interruptions)

SARDAR JAGJIT SINGH AURORA (Punjab): How can I?

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You can continue your speech.

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: Madam, 30,000 Many leaders have been arrested in Delhi. Mr. Nripen Chakravarty has been arrested in Tripura. Many Leaders have been arrested in Delhi. Leaders have been beaten in police custody. We must make a submission. A very serious development has taken place.

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: There is police raj in Tamil Nadu. There is emergency in Tamil Nadu.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Aurora. Please continue your speech.

1.00 P.M.

SARDAR JAGJIT SINGH AURORA: How do I start? (Interruptions)

The DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please go back to your seats. (Interruptions) Please go back to your seats. This is not the way to behave in the House. You have not kept your gentleman's word. Yesterday it has been agreed...(Interruptions)... that we will resume the discusson, at 1.40 or 1.45 the Minister will reply and you will co-operate and the voting will take place at 2 p.m. Now you have gone back on your words... (Interruptions) Mr. Aurora you please start your speech. You come over here and speak. (Intttruptions) Mr. Aurora is not continuing his speech. So, I will ask Mr. Darbara Singh to speak. (Interruptions) Mr. Darbara Singh, you please start your speech.

श्री दरबारा सिंह (पंजाब) : माननीय उपसभापति जी ... (व्यवधान)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You please go back to your seats. You have gone back on your promise. It is a gentleman's word. (Interruptions) You are not listening to the order of the Chair. You please go back to your seats. (Interruptions). You please go back to your seats Mr. Darbara Singh, please continue. (Interruptions)

Your will not go beyond that. Go back to your seat. I request with folded hands, please go back to your seat. (Interruptions) This is rowdyism. This is breaking of the rules. You are not behaving. Your are defying the Chair. Please go back to your seats. (Interruptions)

[The Deputy Chairman]

Wait, wait. You see. Dipen Ghosh has been asking me permission to make a submission. To allow him to make a submission, if your all agree, I can allow only one Member....

SOME HON. MEMBERS: No, no. (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: That shows that you do not want to keep up your promise. If you want to make a submission, I will give permission of Mr. Dipen Ghosh on behalf of all of your for ten minutes. I will alow him to make the submission. But if that is not your intention, we canont have a discussion. (Interruptions). After giving the promise, explict promise, a gentleman's word has been given by you and you are going back on that now.

श्री दरबारा सिंह : हम उसको बढ़ावा देने वाले हैं। ...(व्यवधान)

यह अमेंडमेंट क्यों लाई गई है, इसके लिये मैं आपसे कहना चाहता हूं... (व्यवधान)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: If the leaders of the various groups, they want to speak, I can allow you only after the Bill is passed.

SOME HON. MEMBERS: No, no.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: That shows you do not want to cooperate.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB): Madam, Let Shri Darbara Singh continue his speech. (Interruptions). Every Member in this House has a right to speak. It is against Parliamentary practice to disturb like this. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Now, it has been agreed that the group leaders....

THE MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI H.K.L. BHAGAT): You may ask the Government also.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I know that... (Interruptions) Please listen to me and if you have any objection, you can raise that. But first listen to me..... (Interruptions) Try to understand what I have to say and if you have any objection, you can rase it.... (Interruptions)

मालूम है मुझे, लेकिन प्लीज, थोड़ा सा तो कुछ संयम रखिए।

I will tell you. It is not the responsibility of the Chair alone to run the proceedings smoothly. It is the responsibility of each and every Member of the House. So please co-operate. They have agreed that the group leaders would speak for 2-3 minutes, at the most..... (Interruptions) Now, you are going back again? So, what I will do is, after two minutes, I will ring the bell and call another Member, and they will have to cooperate. This is the word they have given in the House ...

SOME HON. MEMBERS: Three minutes.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Alright; three minutes. Doesn't matter.

SHRI N. K. P. SALVE (Maharashtra): We are agreeable but with one rider that the speech of the Home Minister must start at 1.45.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: It was agreed yesterday.

SHRI M. M. JACOB: Madam, you announced yesterday that it will be taken up for young at 2 p.m.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You have not allowed me to complete. It will be the moral responsibility....(Interruptions). With mutual consent and with the consensus I had declared in the House, when the Members from both sides were present with whom I had discussed, that the discussion would go on till 1.40 or 1.45 p.m. and then the Minister will reply and voting will take place exactly at 2.00' clock. So, you have to adhere to that.

SARDAR JAGJIT SINGH AURORA: This is wrong. What about my speech? It is not my fault.... (Interruptions) .

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Then it shows that you are going back on your commitment.

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: (Andhra Pradesh): I make a submission. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Where is the question of submission?

SHRI A. G. KULKARNI (Maharashtra): They are not agreeing to anything. For Heaven's sake let us start with the discussion and then the voting should take place at 2.00. (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIMAN: It is their responsibility also to keep the word. Voting will start at 2.00 O'Clock. That is their commitment.

श्री अटल बिहारी वाजपेयी : (मध्य प्रदेश) : अभी मैम्बरों के भाषण होने बाकी हैं । हम बिल के ऊपर बोलना चाहेंग ।

उपसभापति : आप भाषण तो कर ही नहीं रहे हैं ।

श्री अटल बिहारी वाजपेयी : हम तो करना चाहत हैं ।

उपसभापति : तो कीजिये ।

श्री अटल बिहारी वाजपेयी : पहले श्री दरबारा सिह से भाषण कराइए ।

उपसभापति : आप कीजिये । आप बोलने वाले हैं । जिसका नाम आपकी पार्टी की तरफ से आया होगा

श्री अटल बिहारी वाजपेयी : श्री जसवंत सिह जी का नाम होगा । इस तरह दो बजे तक चर्चा खत्म नहीं होगी । (व्यवधान)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: It is going back on the promise.

SHRI PARVATHENI UPENDRA. Madam, let me make one submission.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Aurora can now continue. (Interruptions). On behalf of all groups you said that you will speak, not on one man's behalf. After that Mr. Upendra gets up to make a submission. Then this process will again start. (Interruptions). You are not cooperating. Yesterday you agreed and you have to keep your promise. (Interruptions). You don't deny that. Now go back to your seat and cooperate. (Interruptions). This will be over in 15 minutes. It is a question of fifteen minutes only. Then the Bill can smoothly be passed. (Interruptions). Yes, Mr. Dipen Ghosh, three minutes only. After three minutes you will not speak.

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: You need not show your finger like that. I will abide by the finger (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Order, order please. Yes, Mr. Dipen Ghosh. (Interruptions). You are unnecessarily wasting the time.

WIDESPREAD ARRESTS IN CONNECTION WITH "BHARAT BANDH"

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH (West Bengal): Madam Deputy Chairman a serious development has taken place in the country in the meantime. Before the Emergency Bill could be passed by this House the Central Government has declared a de facto emrgency all over the country today. When the countrymen are observing Bharat bandh today.... (Interruptions).

Madam, I will deduct this time....thirty thousand people have been arrested in Tamil Nadu. Shoot-to-kill orders have been issued in Tamil Nadu. In Orissa, all the leaders of the bandh-sponsoring parties have been arrested. In Tripura, 84 year old ex-Chief Minister, now a Member of Legislative Assembly, Shri
